A Brief Snapshot:

Steve Strawhead is an award-winning singer and guitarist delivering classic pop, rock and country covers from across the decades. A finalist in Boom Radio's One More Dream 2026 and winner of NewDawnFM's Jukebox Judgment 2024, Steve brings a big, crowd-pleasing sound using stomp box and harmony pedals - more one-man trio than solo act. Perfect for pubs, clubs, festivals, and beyond. Steve is a versatile performer who thrives in any venue.

In More Detail:

Steve Strawhead is a Cambridgeshire based award-winning singer and guitarist known for delivering classic pop rock and country covers from throughout the decades. A top-five finalist in Boom Radio's "One More Dream" 2026 cover artist competition and winner of NewDawnFM's "Jukebox Judgment" in 2024, he brings proven talent and crowd appeal to every performance.

His extensive catalogue of crowd-pleasing songs - from Elvis to Oasis, Stereophonics and even ABBA - keeps audiences entertained all night and the bar busy, encouraging regular trips for drinks while he delivers his set in a uniquely captivating style. Steve also has a natural knack for reading the room, selecting the right songs at exactly the right moment to keep the energy flowing and the crowd fully engaged. Using a stomp box kick drum and harmony pedal, he creates a rich, full sound that feels more like a one-man trio than a solo act.

Steve has performed at some of the region's most respected venues, including Peterborough favourites The Shed, The Ostrich, Charters and The Brewery Tap, as well as The Junction in Cambridge. He has also played established London venues such as The Camden Club and The Bedford in Balham, building a strong reputation on both local and city stages.

Despite his impressive résumé, Steve remains competitively priced and accessible, so don't be put off - he offers a professional, high-quality performance without the premium price tag.

Fully self-contained, Steve provides his own professional PA system and lighting setup and holds public liability insurance - making him a reliable, hassle-free choice for any event.
